

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Preface.

ACCORDING to the Domesday Survey of the land between the Ribble and the Mersey, A.D. 1066-1086, there were two parishes in the Hundred of Blackburn, namely Blackburn and Whalley.

"Inter Ripam et Mersham in Blacheburn Hundreto Rex Edwardus tenuit Blacheburne. Ibi II hidæ et II carucate terra. Ecclesia habebat II bouatas de hac terra et ecclesia Sanctæ Mariæ habebat in Wallei II carucatas terrae quietas ab omni consuetudine."

"King Edward held Blackburn; there are two hides and two team lands there. The church (of Blackburn) had two oxgangs of this land and the church of S. Mary had two team lands in Whalley quit of all custom including geld."

The present area of the ancient parish of Whalley, shorn as it is of its original dimensions, is just 116,910 acres or nearly 138 square miles, of which 5,465 acres are in Yorkshire. The remaining 111,445 acres form nearly one-ninth part of the county of Lancaster. There were seven Parochial Chapels dependent upon the original foundation of Whalley Church, all of which were endowed with competent glebes prior to 1284, namely (1) Clitheroe, (2) Colne, (3) Burnley, (4) Altham, (5) Downham, (6) Church, (7) Haslingden. The Chapel of Padiham was added in 1451; Whitewell, Holme, and Marsden Chapels were erected in the reigns of Henry VI. and Henry VII.; Newchurch in Rossendale in 1511; Newchurch in Pendle in 1543; and Accrington in 1577.

To give some idea of the great extent of the parish of Whalley it may not be out of place here to detail the different townships contained therein :

Borough of Clitheroe, including the townships of Clitheroe, Little Mitton, Henthorn, Worston, Chatburn, Downham, Twiston, Mearley, Pendleton, Cold Coates, Wiswall, and Whalley.

Parochial Chapelry of New Church in Pendle Forest, including the townships of Roughlee Booth, Barley-cum-Wheatley and Wheatley Carr, Goldshaw Booth, and Old Laund Booth.

Chapelry of Colne, including the townships of Colne, Barrowford, Foulridge, Trawden, and Great and Little Marsden.

Chapelry of Burnley, including the townships of Burnley with Towneley and Brunshaw, Habergham Eaves, Ightenhill Park, Reedley Hallows with Filly Close and New Laund Booth, Briercliffe with Extwistle, Worsthorn with Hurstwood, and Cliviger.

Chapelry of Haslingden, including the townships of Haslingden, Hensheads, Higher Booths and Lower Booths.

Chapelry of New Church in Rossendale, including the townships of New Church, Wolfenden, Bacup, and Deadwen Clough.

Chapelry of Church, including the three townships of Church, Oswaldtwistle, Yate-cum-Pickup Bank, and Huncoat.

Chapelry of Altham, including the townships of Altham, Clayton-le-Moors, and Old and New Accrington.

Chapelry of Padiham, including the townships of Padiham, Dunnockshaw, Hapton, Simonstone, Read, Higher Booth, and Heyhouses.

And lastly Bowland with Leagram.

Parish Registers in their present form owe their existence to an injunction of Thomas Lord Cromwell addressed to the clergy in his capacity as Vicar-General, in September, 1538. In 1597 such Registers as were previously written on paper were ordered to be transcribed on parchment.

The Whalley Registers, the earliest in the county, commence in the year 1538, in the thirtieth year of the reign of Henry VIII., during the vicariate of the first Protestant vicar, Edward Pedley, who was inducted prior to the dissolution of the Monasteries and was buried 5th December, 1558, as appears in the Register. The earliest Register of which the present volume is comprised contains 87 parchment leaves measuring 13 inches by 5½ inches, and the first entry commences with a christening on 27th November, 1538, and the last entry is that of a burial on 21st October, 1601. The writing, which is in Latin throughout, is good and clear and the Register has every appearance of having been uniformly copied at one time by the same individual either from an older Register or from loose slips of paper or parchment to about the middle of February, 1600-1, since that date entries were added as occasion required. This Register which is in an excellent state of preservation was rebound with strong calf covers at Blackburn in May, 1789.

The present volume contains an exact transcript of the original entries except in these minor respects, viz.: all contractions of surnames have been extended in full, and the Roman letters forming the date of the month and the year have been changed into Arabic numerals thus : xxviiij=28 and MDLXXXVIIJ=1588. In the index of names the English equivalents of Latin Christian names have been given. The original entries have, in all other respects, been exactly reproduced and every proof sheet has been carefully collated with the original Register by Mr. Thomas Price, to whom I desire here to acknowledge my obligations.

The index has been compiled solely by myself in the intervals of a busy life and though no efforts were spared to ensure accuracy, it would be too much to expect that it is altogether free from errors and possibly omissions, for which I must crave indulgence from all parties concerned in its use.

I.

Of Christian Names and Surnames.

CHRISTENINGS AND BIRTHS	- pp.	1—78	inclusive.
WEDDINGS	- - - - -	79—104	"
BURIALS	- - - - -	105—176	"

Where a name has variants the Head-name has been selected which now exists or which most closely resembles the modern equivalent. Where a name has an alias each form of the name is Indexed under its initial letter. The Christian names are with very few exceptions Indexed under their modern form. Illegitimate children are Indexed under the Surnames of both Mother and putative Father. In Indexing the Marriages the rule has been followed of Indexing the woman both under her maiden name and that of her husband. "N.X.N." signifies "No Christian name." An asterisk following a page number denotes that combination of Christian name and Surname occurs more than once on the page asterisked.
